

“Go Forth and Share the Gospel”

In his document, Evangelii Gaudium, Pope Francis called on Catholics to go out into the world, sharing their faith "with enthusiasm and vitality". The obligation to share the Gospel and care for others comes with baptism, and no one is excused from the task, he said.

As you go forth into the world to spread the joy of the gospel, do it fortified with a solid knowledge of your faith.

Please join in one of two adult catechism courses created by Servant of God, Fr. John Hardon.

These home-study, self-paced courses are perfect for each of us who wants to know more about our faith. No matter where you are at in your walk, you will find these classes challenging and informative.

- The Basic course will be offered the second Saturday of every month. The cost is FREE. Starts February 13th at 9:00am
- The Advanced course will be offered and lead by Father David the first Saturday of every month. Starts February 6th at 9:00am Cost is $60.
